

“CUDDLE QUILTS”

As part of the El Camino Quilters Guild philanthropic endeavors, “Cuddle Quilts” are made by individual members and donated to several agencies that meet community needs as well as individuals. (Some of these agencies are: Elizabeth Hospice, Polinsky Children’s Center, Family Recovery Center, Women’s Resource Center and Camp Pendleton Wounded Warriors, Dept. of Veteran Affairs, etc.) In 2009 a grand total of 1148 “Cuddle Quilts” were donated (a simply amazing feat!) Every month we have three workshops where members are provided with kits, batting and backing (or members can bring a quilt from home for “Cuddle Quilts”) to work on. Just bring your sewing machine, sewing supplies and lunch. This is a great place to meet members, learn techniques from other quilters and have a great time!

The workshops are held at: (except holidays)
