

“CUDDLE QUILTS”

2011

As part of the El Camino Quilters Guild philanthropic endeavors, “Cuddle Quilts” are made by individual members and donated to several agencies that meet community needs as well as individuals. (Some of these agencies are: Elizabeth Hospice, Polinsky Children’s Center, Family Recovery Center, Women’s Resource Center and Camp Pendleton Wounded Warriors, Dept. of Veteran Affairs, etc.) In 2010 more than 1,040 “Cuddle Quilts” were donated (a great accomplishment!) Every month we have three workshops where members are provided with kits, batting and backing to work on (or members can bring a quilt from home for “Cuddle Quilts”). Just bring your sewing machine, sewing supplies and lunch. This is a great place to meet members, learn techniques from other quilters and have a great time!

The workshops are held at: (except holidays)
